February marks the beginning of Black History Month. It has been an annual celebration that has existed since 1926. There have been many important people and events that have contributed to African American History.

You can earn extra credit for the second quarter by creating a data disc on someone who has contributed to African American History. You must get your person approved by me prior to starting your research.

Your report must include the following information:

Personal Data
- Where was he or she born?
- When was he or she born?
- Where did he or she grow up?
- What is his or her ethnic background?

Career
- What job does he or she currently have?
- What were some of his or her prior jobs?
- Was he or she ever in the military?

Family
- Who are/were his or her parents?
- Does he or she have any siblings?
- Is he or she married?
- Does he or she have any children?

Accomplishments
- What important contributions has he/she made?

Education
- Where did he or she go to college?
- Did he or she go on to graduate school?

The name of the person and picture must go on the front. Also be sure to include your name and SS mod on the front.

The writing must be in your own words!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
